

Take Flight with a good book

Friday May 13, 2016 Chestnut Ridge will be having their Kick-off at 10:00 for Take Flight with a good book! We will get a visit from some special birds called Raptors from Medina Raptor Center. These birds include owls and falcons.

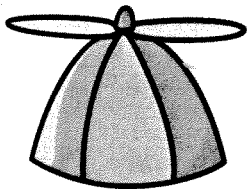

Monday, May 16- Manic Monday! Wear your hat, socks, dresses or shirts inside out or backwards! If you're real brave wear your clothes inside out! Wear mismatched socks, CLASH! Today at 2:30 we will have an assembly from the Holmes County Soil & Conservation.

Tuesday, May 17- BRING YOUR FAVORITE ANIMAL TO SCHOOL DAY! Not your real animal, silly! Your stuffed animal to hear you read. Pat Dutton, from the Wilderness Center will present a program, Backyard Birds! You will learn interesting facts about your neighborhood birds and make a birdfeeder.

Wednesday, May 18- Don't be weirded out, we will be studying owls in the wild. What's a food chain? What are owl pellets? Stay tuned.

Thursday, May 19- CRAZY HAT DAY! Be sure to wear your most outrageous hat or cap! Do you like different books to read? We will be having a book swap today. It will be in the gym and your class will be called when it is time to come get a book.

Friday, May 20- NATURE NIGHT FOR THE FAMILY! Starting at 6:00 p.m. The Wilderness Center will present a program about habitats and wetland. They will have a live turtle exhibit! We will be making a food chain craft at a cost of $1.00 per craft. Wear feathers to school today.

Monday, May 23- Special activity only if you read a lot!
